FREEDMEN'S BUREAU PRESERVATION PROJECT

This National Archives microfilm publication is part of a multiyear project to microfilm the field office records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands (Freedmen's Bureau). The project was made possible by the United States Congress through The Freedmen's Bureau Records Preservation Act of 2000 (Public Law 106-444). When completed, all of the field records for the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and for the District of Columbia will be available on microfilm. For microfilm availability and description, view both the microfilm catalog Black Studies: A Select Catalog of National Archives Microfilm Publications and the National Archives microfilm locator on our web site at www.archives.gov.

INTRODUCTION

On the 133 rolls of this microfilm publication, M1904, are reproduced the records of the Kentucky headquarters for the Assistant Commissioner and his staff officers and the subordinate field offices of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865-1872. These records consist of bound volumes and unbound records, containing materials that include letters sent and received, monthly reports, registers of complaints, labor contracts, and other records relating to freedmen's claims and bounty payments. These records are part of the Records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, Record Group (RG) 105.

HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, also known as the Freedmen's Bureau, was established in the War Department by an act of Congress on March 3, 1865 (13 Stat. 507). The life of the Bureau was extended twice by acts of July 16, 1866 (14 Stat. 173), and July 6, 1868 (15 Stat. 83). The Bureau was responsible for the supervision and management of all matters relating to refugees and freedmen, and of lands abandoned or seized during the Civil War. In May 1865, President Andrew Johnson appointed Maj. Gen. Oliver Otis Howard as Commissioner of the Bureau, and Howard served in that position until June 30, 1872, when activities of the Bureau were terminated in accordance with an act of June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366). While a major part of the Bureau's early activities involved the supervision of abandoned and confiscated property, its mission was to provide relief and help freedmen become self-sufficient. Bureau officials issued rations and clothing, operated hospitals and refugee camps, and supervised labor contracts. In addition, the Bureau managed apprenticeship disputes and complaints, assisted benevolent societies in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen in legalizing marriages entered into during slavery, and provided transportation to refugees and freedmen who were attempting to reunite with their family or relocate to other parts of the country. The Bureau also helped black soldiers, sailors, and their heirs collect bounty claims, pensions, and back pay.

The act of March 3, 1865, authorized the appointment of Assistant Commissioners to aid the Commissioner in supervising the work of the Bureau in the former consist of a superintendent of education, an assistant adjutant general, an assistant inspector general, a disbursing officer, a chief medical officer, a chief quartermaster, and a commissary of subsistence. Subordinate to these officers were the assistant superintendents, or subassistant commissioners as they later became known, who commanded the subdistricts.

The Assistant Commissioner corresponded extensively with both his superior in the Washington Bureau headquarters and his subordinate officers in the subdistricts. Based upon reports submitted to him by the subassistant commissioners and other subordinate staff officers, he prepared reports that he sent to the Commissioner concerning Bureau activities in areas under his jurisdiction. The Assistant Commissioner also received letters from freedmen, local white citizens, state officials, and other non-Bureau personnel. These letters varied in nature from complaints to applications for jobs in the Bureau. Because the assistant adjutant general handled much of the mail for the Assistant Commissioner's office, it was often addressed to him instead of to the Assistant Commissioner.

In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard in July 1865, the Assistant Commissioners were instructed to designate one officer in each state to serve as "general Superintendents of Schools." These officials were to "take cognizance of all that is being done to educate refugees and freedmen, secure proper protection to schools and teachers, promote method and efficiency, correspond with the benevolent agencies which are supplying his field, and aid the Assistant Commissioner in making his required reports." In October 1865, a degree of centralized control was established over Bureau educational activities in the states when Rev. John W. Alvord was appointed Inspector of Finances and Schools. In January 1867, Alvord was divested of his financial responsibilities, and he was appointed General Superintendent of Education.

An act of Congress, approved July 25, 1868 (15 Stat. 193), ordered that the Commissioner of the Bureau "shall, on the first day of January next, cause the said bureau to be withdrawn from the several States within which said bureau has acted and its operation shall be discontinued." Consequently, in early 1869, with the exception of the superintendents of education and the claims agents, the Assistant Commissioners and their subordinate officers were withdrawn from the states.

For the next year and a half the Bureau continued to pursue its education work and to process claims. In the summer of 1870, the superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, and the headquarters staff was greatly reduced. From that time until the Bureau was abolished by an act of Congress approved June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366), effective June 30, 1872, the Bureau's functions related almost exclusively to the disposition of claims. The Bureau's records and remaining functions were then transferred to the Freedmen's Branch in the office of the Adjutant General. The records of this branch are among the Bureau's files.

ORGANIZATION

From July 1865 until June 1866, Maj. Gen. C. B. Fisk served as Assistant Commissioner for both Kentucky and Tennessee. Fisk appointed Bvt. Brig. Gen. John Ely to serve as chief superintendent for the Bureau at Kentucky (from March to June 1866). Ely established his headquarters at Louisville, Kentucky, and divided his operations into five subdistricts: Lexington, Louisville, Northwestern, Southern, and Central. Records relating to Kentucky created prior to Ely's tenure may be included among the files of the Assistant Commissioner for Tennessee.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

In June 1866, Maj. Gen. Jeff C. Davis was appointed as the first Assistant Commissioner for Kentucky. Superintendents (or subassistant commissioners) employed under Davis were generally responsible for from 3 to 11 counties, and agents (civilian and military) from 1 to 3 counties. Agents received their orders directly from superintendents, and all superintendents were required to submit monthly reports of their activities to the Assistant Commissioner. Brig. Gen. Sidney Burbank succeeded Davis in March 1867 and was replaced by Maj. Benjamin Runkle, who served from January 1869 to May 1869 as Assistant Commissioner and superintendent of education. In August 1870, when superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, Runkle served as claims agent for Kentucky until July 1871. H. H. Ray succeeded Runkle as claims agent, and served in this capacity until December 1871. P. J. Overley became the claims agent in January 1872 and remained in this position until the Bureau's operations in Kentucky were discontinued in April. The major subordinate field offices for the Bureau at Kentucky included those with headquarters at Bowling Green, Lebanon, Lexington, Louisville, and Paducah. For a list of known Kentucky subordinate field office personnel and their dates of service, see the Appendix.

ACTIVITIES

While the Freedmen's Bureau did not begin full operations in Kentucky until June 1866, its activities in the state generally resembled those conducted in other Southern states. The Bureau supervised labor contracts between planters and freedmen, administered justice, assisted freedmen in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen legalize marriages, and worked with black soldiers and their heirs in processing claims relating to military service.

The regulation of written labor agreements between planters and freedmen was a major concern of the Freedmen's Bureau. In a circular issued on July 24, 1865 (Circular Number 2), Assistant Commissioner Fisk told his subordinates that for both Kentucky and Tennessee freedmen must be free to choose their own employers and that wages were to be based on supply and demand rather than a fixed rate. Bureau officials were to negotiate and approve labor contracts and enforce violations by either party. Compulsory unpaid labor was strictly prohibited. In some areas of reduced to slavery. However, with strong reservations, Bureau officers negotiated monthly agreements for them but encouraged freedmen to sign annual contracts that offered yearlong employment. Wages for monthly contracts ranged from $8 to $10 a month for adult male field hands, well below the state's average wage of $15 a month for men. However by the summer of 1866, with the Bureau's insistence, adult laborers in the tobacco region of the state received $25 per month and laborers in the farm belt areas earned $12 per month. In some Kentucky counties, freedmen received a third of the crops rather than wages. However, because of the shortage of laborers in the state, freedmen were able to demand higher wages, and thus over time the sharecropping system became less attractive.¹

The Bureau worked to protect the rights and legal status of freedmen, which, despite the ending of slavery by the 13th Amendment, were still endangered by the persistence of the old slave codes. On May 30, 1865, Commissioner Howard issued Circular Number 5, authorizing Assistant Commissioners to establish courts in states where the old codes existed and the right of blacks to testify against whites was prohibited. Gen. Fisk subsequently announced to the citizens of Kentucky that freedmen courts would operate in the state as long as freedmen weren't given the same rights as whites. By 1867, as a result of several Federal court rulings, Bureau courts ceased to operate in Kentucky. When state courts denied black testimony, the agency, under provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1866, took cases involving freedmen to the U.S. District Court of Kentucky. In instances where freedmen lacked resources to pursue their cases in Federal court, the Bureau provided transportation for witnesses and other forms of assistance. Despite the Bureau's efforts to safeguard rights and secure justice for freedmen in Kentucky, admitting the testimony of blacks against whites still remained an issue in 1869 when Bureau Assistant Commissioners and their subordinates were withdrawn from the states. However, in January 1872, with a change in public opinion and pressure from the courts, the Kentucky State Legislature amended state law and allowed blacks to testify.

When Gen. John Ely began his duties as chief superintendent for Kentucky under Gen. Fisk's supervision, there were 30 freedmen schools and more than 2,000 students. The schools were organized and maintained by black churches, with black clergy as instructors. Freedmen schools faced widespread violence and white opposition, and in many cases, teachers and students were forced to abandon efforts to maintain school buildings. Ely and his subordinate assisted freedmen in reopening schools that had been forced to close.² Under Maj. Gen. Jeff C. Davis, who replaced Ely in the summer of 1866, the number of freedmen schools increased to 54, with some 67 teachers and more than 3,200 students. Excluding the schools established at Lexington and Covington under the auspices of the Cincinnati Branch of the Western Freedmen's Aid Society and the Cincinnati Branch of the American Missionary Association, the freedmen schools were taught by black teachers who were supported by subscriptions from parents and black religious institutions. The schools increased to 96, accommodating about 5,000 students aged 6-18. By September 1868, in spite of continued violence and opposition, the Bureau had provided support for 135 day schools and 1 night school, serving more than 6,000 students.³

On February 14, 1866, the Kentucky State Legislature passed an act legalizing marriages freedmen had entered into during slavery and authorizing black ministers to solemnize such marriages. Nearly 2 weeks later, on February 26, 1866, Assistant Commissioner Fisk issued Circular Number 5, in accordance with the Kentucky law, directing those freedmen who sought to solemnize a marriage to the county clerk for a marriage license. If the county clerk refused to issue a license, Bureau officials in the subdistricts were authorized to solemnize marriages and issue marriage certificates. Local Bureau officers were required to maintain a register of freedmen marriages and forward a report of such marriages to the Assistant Commissioner at the end of each month. Subordinate Bureau officers were also told to notify persons living as man and wife who had not legalized their marriage, to report to the Bureau to take the necessary steps to do so. Persons who failed to comply were guilty of a misdemeanor and were to be punished by a fine and imprisonment.⁴ This microfilm publication reproduces marriage licenses, certificates, and registers of marriages for the Kentucky subdistricts at Augusta, Bowling Green, Columbus, Cynthiana, Owensboro, Paducah, Mt. Sterling, and Winchester. A single freedmen marriage license and a marriage certificate from Kentucky, filed in the Bureau's headquarters records, has been reproduced on roll 1 of National Archives Microfilm Publication M1875, Marriage Records of the Office of the Commissioner, Washington Headquarters of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1861-1869.

In addition to assisting freedmen in solemnizing slave marriages and efforts to sustain the black family, the Bureau helped discharged soldiers, sailors, marines, and their heirs in claims for back pay, bounty payments, and pensions. In accordance with a law passed by Congress on March 29, 1867 (15 Stat. 26), making the Bureau the sole agent for payment of claims relating to black veterans, Bureau disbursing officers assisted freedmen in the preparation and settlement of military claims. In November 1866, in spite of the difficulties in locating veterans who fled the state for fear of violence, Assistant Commissioner Davis reported that he had forwarded more than 260 black soldiers' claims for back pay and bounty payments to Commissioner Howard's office in Washington, DC. In the following year, Assistant Commissioner Burbank reported that his office had assisted nearly 500 veterans with military

RECORDS DESCRIPTION

These records consist of volumes and unbound records. The volumes reproduced in this microfilm publication were originally arranged by type of record and thereunder by volume number. No numbers were assigned to series consisting of single volumes. Years later, all volumes were arbitrarily assigned numbers by the Adjutant General's Office (AGO) of the War Department after the records came into its custody. In this microfilm publication, AGO numbers are shown in parentheses to aid in identifying the volumes. The National Archives assigned the volume numbers that are not in parentheses. In some volumes, particularly in indexes and alphabetical headings of registers, there are blank numbered pages that have not been filmed.

The volumes consist of letters and endorsements sent and received, press copies of letters sent, registers of letters received, letters and orders received, registers of freedmen court cases, special orders and circulars issued, registers of claimants, registers of complaints, marriage certificates, and monthly reports forwarded to the Assistant Commissioner. The unbound documents consist of letters and orders received, unregistered letters and narrative reports received, special orders and circulars issued, and general orders and circulars received. The unbound records also contain monthly reports; labor contracts; marriage certificates, and records relating to claims.

Some of the volumes contain more than one type of record, reflecting a common recording practice of clerks and staff officers of that period. On roll 93, for example, the volume of contracts for the Columbus field office also contains a register of marriages. Some other examples of additional series within volumes can be found in records on rolls 106, 123, and 133. Researchers should read carefully the records descriptions and arrangements in the Table of Contents to make full use of these documents.

RELATED RECORDS

In the same record group, RG 105, and related to records of the Bureau's field offices for Kentucky, are those of the Bureau headquarters in Washington, DC, and previously microfilmed records of the Assistant Commissioner and the superintendent of education for Tennessee. These record series are available in the Records in other National Archives record groups supplement those of the Assistant Commissioner. In Records of United States Army Continental Commands, 1821-1920, RG 393, are records of the military district that included Kentucky. Records relating to employment and welfare of freedmen and abandoned property before the establishment of the Bureau are among Records of Civil War Special Agencies of the Treasury Department, RG 366. The records of the Freedman's Savings and Trust Company, 1865-1874, in Records of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, RG 101, contain information relating to former slaves who maintained accounts with bank branches in Kentucky.

Forwards letter of O. M. Root, Esq., Attorney, &c., who complains that Col. Runkle obstructed the payment of charges made for procuring for Mrs. Julia Ann Calloway the additional bounty due her deceased son Joe Owens, Co. F., 108th U.S.C.T., because fees had already been paid another attorney for the prosecution of Owens' Claim.

Col. Runkle remarks that Cert. No. 308000, for $200 in favor of Joe Owens (on which $13 were allowed in fee) was paid by him to Mrs. Calloway, $87 at one time, and $100 at another, and that, as fees had been paid the Attorney General, he advised Mrs.

Respectfully returned to Bot. Col. B. P. Runkle, U. S. A., Disbursing Officer Bureau R.F. & A.T., with the information that his decision is approved so far as concerns nonpayment of fees to Mr. Root for prosecution of this case, inasmuch as the additional bounty forms a part of the certificate issued in favor of John Owens, and, by a decision of the Second Comptroller, only one fee can be allowed on any certificate.

There does not seem to be any good reason, however, why this Bureau should interfere to prevent the claimant from paying him a fair and equitable compensation for making out her application to General Balloch for the additional bounty, after the passage of the in favor of Joe Owens, whose heir Mrs. Calloway proved to be.

Sir The undersigned most respectfully represents that Julia Ann Calloway (mother

since he had filed his application for Bounty by Bernard his attorney) received on the 18th day of December 1867 from the Bureau agent at this City $100.⁰⁰ less $13.⁰⁰ paid to said
Bernard attorney for said John Owen
That on the 9th day of March 1868. Said Julia Ann Calloway employed me as her attorney to investigate the correctness of said allowance already paid to her and collect whatever balance might be due her and executed the accompanying Power of Collecting the same pursuant to this agreement I have spent considerable time to ascertain the facts in the case and in correspondence that has resulted in obtaining for her the additional Bounty of $100.⁰⁰ which has been paid to her to day by the Bureau agent here who instructed said Julia Ann Calloway that it was illegal that she should pay or that I should receive from her any fees or allowance whatever for

My services in the case said Julia Ann Calloway expressed a willingness to pay the usual legal fees but was prevented and restrained from doing so by the advice and instruction of Col Ruckle the disbursing officer here until the question should be referred for instruction in the premises

Q^uest Does the receipt of fees by one attorney for services in a case where all that could be properly paid under the rulings in force at the time was paid at that settlement debar a subsequent attorney (who had no connection with the first allowance) from the right to receive the legal fees on the amount collected through his services. especially if the claimant is willing to pay so there any law or order against it provided the charges of the attorney are reasonable and conform with the legal fees for collections in regular applications

Additional Bounty provided by me under the amendment to the additional Bounty act approved

February 21st 1868 and this day Paul by the Bureau agent here $100⁰⁰ for which I have not received any fee or compensation whatsoever

Am I entitled to pay for my services or ought Julia Ann Calloway to be prevented or restrained from paying me the usual

Bounty for her

I ask only justice in the matter

Very Respectfully yours Obedient Servant

Sir:

Your letter notifying me of the decision in cases in your hands in which I have made advances, is just received.

I do most solemnly protest against the said decision as final, in these claims, and I respectfully request, that you will make no payment of money to any of the parties named until you see me. If Congress meets next month,
I will be in Hockington, very soon after, and I will be glad to see you.

Yours truly,

I deny the right of any military Commission to adjudicate and pass upon a legal claim of mine, which is proved, in strict conformity to the requirements of an Act of Congress.

This has been done in my case, and all have utterly ignored, in allowing interested oral testimony to be heard, and to entirely outweigh, the best possible, positive written evidence.

Please lay this letter before General Howard, as I wish both himself and Gen. Geo. W. Bellock, notified, not to make any payment of my money or money which I claim, to Prof. Montgomery, Robert Courtney or to Richard Bridgman, until after a further hearing is had upon this matter.

Please have the kindness to inform me if you will stay any payments, as I request.

I am very respectfully
 Your obedient servant

Sir:

I am directed by Maj. Gen. W. W. Howard, Commissioner of the Bureau, to inform you that, as the result of the investigation in the matter of advances made by you, as their attorney, to Thomas Montgomery, Robert Coarthy, and Richard Diddwell, it has been decided to allow as follows:

Montgomery, one hundred dollars ($100.)

Robert Coarthy, one hundred dollars ($100.)

Richard Diddwell, one hundred and twenty nine dollars and twenty cents ($129.²⁰¢) as against your claims for one hundred and ninety dollars ($190.) one hundred and eighty-seven dollars ($187.) and one hundred and forty-nine dollars and twenty cents ($149.²⁰), respectively.

I beg to assure you that in reaching his decision your letters of April 21 and June 9 1868 in support of your claims have been carefully considered.

Colonel, I am directed to return herewith the application for bounty of Matilda Hickman, widow of George Hickman, late Private Co. G 12th U. S. Artillery (2).

The records of this office show that the claim for bounty of George Hickman, late Pvt. Co. G 12th U. S. Artillery was filed in the Second Auditor's Office by George W. Hull.

200.00, bounty, the entire amount, to which he was entitled.

The presumption is, that the soldier, whose discharge together with letter from the Second (over)

Auditor repating adversely on his claim for bounty is herewith enclosed, and the one on whose behalf Matilda Hickman makes application, were one and the same person.

In transmitting applications of heirs of deceased soldiers to this office, in cases where the soldier had made application previous to his death, please state that fact in your letter of transmittal.

Please acknowledge receipt of enclosed discharge at your earliest convenience, giving number of this letter.

Head of Freedman's Bureau,

There is great trouble in Colored soldiers getting their pay even after certificates are sent here. Some of their certificates were sent three months ago and yet they do not get a cent. In fact some of the agents keep the certificates and do not send them back to you according to instructions for reasons best known to themselves.

The following persons had certificates sent here in May and yet they get nothing

If you can take any steps in the Case that will aid the poor colored soldiers and their widows in getting their just dues you would render them a great favor,

Rachel Brants sent on her papers some six weeks ago to draw her pension for herself and children and can learn nothing from it,

All the parties herein spoken live here and within a very few miles.

I am not a regular claim agent and therefore am not fully posted in regard to claims. Some are endeavoring to buy the claims. I advise all soldiers who consult me not to sell to any one.

Your early attention to the foregoing and any suggestions you could make in regard to what steps claimants should take in order to get their claims will greatly

Yours respectfully

Sir

This Road has no objections to "transporting freight to be paid for by the Bureau" on proper Bills Lading - The property mentioned can be shipped on the usual Government Bills of Lading - It is a fact that "Five Boxes and Two Bbls Books & ruled Mr Wm E White's Frankfurt Ky with Bills of Lading" were offered for shipment and that we were willing to take said packages and receipt paid Government Bills of Lading - but we did refuse to sign the individual Bills of Lading of Dr. F. Beckert Esq (which was required pay him some seven to eight dollars as charges (I do not recollect the exact amount) on the packages when the Government Bills Lading only required transportation from Cincinnati & over to Frankfort Ky and made no mention of any charges. In consequence of our refusal to pay the Beckert's charges the packages were

Dear Sir:

Louisville, Ky. Feb 1st 1868

Yours of the 16th came duly to hand. Messrs Wood & Bernard are the successors of "Hogaw" and say the Claim of Chastain Johnson was turned over to them, we inclose you their Card. They acknowledge they have the Claim, and say that all the evidence require is "that the Soldier has not sold or transferred his discharge or Claim". We had to send out one of our Clerks to hunt up this Claim, and find out where it was and if you what is required to complete it. Wood & Bernard took your Address and will now probably write to you about the Claim and if you do not send us an Order for the Claim please send us two dollars to compensate us for our trouble.

As for the Claim of Albert Dyers it will be paid. Congress has not yet passed the Appropriation bill for the next fiscal year and until it is ~~passed~~ ~~is~~ passed no more claims, or atleast very few will be paid -

Yours Respectfully

Dear Sir:

Richmond Dickenson called on me as a lawyer to get his papers arranged and sent to Washington through a government agent I fixed them paying all expenses, for blanks postages station, public fees &c. He agreed to pay me $5 on the hundred I got allowed for him. At the same time I prepared the papers for two more of his company they have got $300 each & paid me $15. each Dickenson is not yet allowed. I have written on about his case & expect to hear soon. I hope you will see him the Bureau has held of the money coming to Cold Soldiers & will not pay me one cent as I am not & never was a government agent but only an attorney preparing papers & paying charges for a fee. If he will give me an assurance of my fee it will not be long before he hears of his case I hope you will attend to this for me & I will appreciate Stephen Eliot
